RE: Complimentary Ticket to the Economic Partnership Summit

This letter is to invite you to the Economic Partnership Summit on Wednesday, September 27, 2023, at 8:30am - 4:30pm, with an optional Pipe Ceremony at 8:15am. The Summit will be located at the Lloydminster Exhibition Grounds, in the WLS Convention Centre. We would like to offer bands, municipalities, counties, and RM's each one complimentary ticket valued at $125.00 for your mayor, chief, reeve, or councillor to attend as you are important leaders in economic partnerships.

The goal of the summit is to bring Indigenous and non-Indigenous businesses, communities, and leaders together, working towards the goal of forming partnerships for economic and social advantages. There will be two speaking panels, which include Indigenous Partnerships and Indigenous Innovation.

The summit will also include a presentation from: Ashley Callingbull

Ashley Callingbull is an actress, model, host and First Nation's activist from the Enoch Cree Nation. She is an actress on Blackstone, and Tribal, and was a contestant on the Amazing Race Canada.

Ashley is also an international motivational speaker and has been a keynote speaker at Harvard University, TED Talks, and WE Day.

Ashley is an ambassador for Hillberg & Berk, RW&Co, The Saskatoon Blades, The Saskatchewan Rush, and Nike. She is also the physical fitness ambassador for the Indigenous Sports Council of Alberta. This March, Ashley was announced as the first Indigenous First Nations woman to become a Sports Illustrated Model. Ashley is currently an In Game Host for the Canadian Football League, the National Lacrosse League and the National Hockey League. She also recently signed her first book deal with Harper Collins publishing and will be a published author in 2024.

There will also be Business Connections, a form of effective networking where businesses can set up meetings with other delegates and make deals/build connections right at the conference. To be approved for a business connections booth, delegates are required to offer real business opportunities for discussion at the event. These business opportunities can include immediate/upcoming/future projects or economic development opportunities. Registration for Business Connection booths is now open and available for an additional $50.00.

The Summit is a day for our leaders and business to meet, sit together, learn together, and most of all, build relationships for successful regional growth. Please complete the attached form if you wish to accept this ticket.

I hope we have the pleasure of seeing you at this event.

Sincerely,
