The United Church of Canada

St. John's United Church, Bonnyville

January 21, 2024

Barry Kalinsky
Reeve, Municipal District of Bonnyville

Mr. Kalinski,

The St. John's United Church would like to invite you and the councillors of the Municipal District of Bonnyville to our Luau Dine and Dance to be held at the Beaver River Fish and Game building in Bonnyville, Saturday, March 23rd.

The purpose:

-a fundraiser to finance outreach activities and operational costs of our church

We support our community by:

- Irish Stew suppers and Harvest suppers
- an annual Night of Music generates funds for the Bonnyville Community Support section of the Stepping Stones Society
- yearly Indigenous service
- our non-denominational cemetery offers burial plots for all
- our United Church Women donate a substantial amount to local charities
- we furnish sandwiches for children in need at Duclos School
- offer yoga and fitness classes
- host yearly food bank drives
- collect items for the men's shelter

Please refer to the accompanying poster for further details. You can also contact the church at 780-826 3003. E-transfers can be made to the church for tickets: bonnyvilleunited@gmail.com. Please include "luau tickets" in the memo section.

Your attendance at our event would be greatly appreciated!
