Hi Kristy,

Here are answers to the question below. We will be present to answer other questions on Tuesday.

1. how the children get to school and their other activities - They will join the school bus if available or be dropped off by staff.
2. What is the level of care the children need? - This ranges. We provide 24/7 care for all children in the group home. Additional services include transporting them to medical appointments and activities within the community.
3. Is it a range from fully abled children to developmentally delayed and differently abled? Yes.
4. How long has the company been in Cold Lake? We were registered in May 2020, first client came in February 2023.
5. Have you operated in other locations? - No, we are only licensed in Alberta and operational in Cold Lake

We are unaware of the Province changing the program to include children being released from juvenile detention or psychiatric hospitals.

Kind regards,

Olunike
