Dear Reeve Barry Kalinski:

I'm writing to introduce myself as the new Commanding Officer of the Alberta Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP). It is an incredible honour to step into this role and lead a police service with such an extensive history of service to the communities and citizens of Alberta.

People are at the heart of everything we do. That includes the dedicated employees on the front lines and behind the scenes, the citizens we serve, and the communities and governments we proudly partner with. None of our work is possible without the commitment, support and collaboration of people.

With 37 years of policing experience - much of it in Alberta - I have seen firsthand how people working together can shape strong communities. I have witnessed the remarkable impact that this committed partnership can have, not only during moments of crisis, but in the everyday interactions that build trust and strengthen public confidence.

Trust is not something that is given; it is earned, day in and day out. My leadership is grounded in public trust, transparency, accountability, and meaningful results. These principles will guide how we serve you and the citizens you represent. I firmly believe that our success is rooted in the strength of our relationships with the communities we serve and the partners we stand beside. That is why I am committed to fostering strong, open, and meaningful connections with you, listening actively, and ensuring our work reflects the needs and values of your community.

While I am proud of the high-quality policing services the Alberta RCMP delivers, I also recognize that there is always room to evolve. We are embracing innovation and leveraging technology to enhance effectiveness. You can see through initiatives like the Real Time Operations Centre (RTOC) and the Remotely Piloted Aircraft Systems (RPAS) program, that the Alberta RCMP is embracing innovation and applying technology in ways that enhance how we serve, protect, and connect with the public.

One of the most pressing challenges we face today is staffing. Recruitment continues to be a top priority - but it is only part of the solution. Retention is equally critical. We are actively exploring new strategies to attract and retain dedicated employees who see the Alberta RCMP as not only a great place to work, but a place to grow, lead and make a difference.

We have an exciting path ahead. While challenges exist, so too do opportunities to modernize, to collaborate and to build an even stronger, more community-focused provincial police service.

Thank you for your ongoing partnership and support. I look forward to working alongside each of you to build safer communities and ensure they remain the best place to live, work and raise our families.

Yours truly,

Trevor Daroux, O.O.M.
